Hello Club Members,

Good day, members. I trust this finds you in good sprits and your summer schedule is not wearing you down too much. Since my last communication, the club has had several functions, including marching in the St Patrick’s Day Parade, the annual Spring Playday, and just last month, the 2014 Awards Banquet. All of these functions were highly successful and well organized. It goes without saying, that not enough “THANK YOUs” go out to those that make the events a success. Like any small club, the same people participate over and over each year to make each event better than the last. I know lots of time goes into planning each event, whether planning, shopping, email communications, etc. It does not go unnoticed and is appreciated by the

BOARD & GENERAL MINUTES 4/18/15

BOARD MEETING: called to order at 1:55 PM. Members present: Chris Cohen-Richards, Madelon McGowen, Kathy Whiteis, Dick Whiteis, Sherry Rez, Lynne Aung-Levin, Cathy Dever, Alexis Heath, Deborah Sherwood, Aileen Frazier, Myrna Burleigh, and Valerie Mahoney. Business postponed to General Meeting. Adjourned at 1:59 PM.

GENERAL MEETING: called to order at 2:00 PM. Minutes from the February 11, 2015 meeting were approved as read.

OFFICERS REPORTS:

- President - Chris Cohen-Richards – No report.
 - Vice President – Rickard Borg – No report, not present.
 - Treasurer - Valerie Mahoney – Reported that the club made $1,000 at the show, $600 of that generated from the raffle.
- Secretary – Jill Merrifield – No report, not present.

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

- Newsletter (Chris Cohen-Richards) – The newsletter is doing well. Alexis has photographs from the parade including miscellaneous and group.
 - Facebook (Chris Cohen-Richards) – No report.
 - Membership (Valerie Mahoney) - One of the new members could not attend this Play Day Meeting because one of their other dogs was injured.
- Rescue (Sherry Rez) – Three applications were sent out for rescue dogs, but none were received back yet. Kathy Whiteis said a woman from Escondido called a person from Wisconsin. The Wisconsin person spoke with Kathy. It is believed the woman from Escondido is the same person who tried previously to get a rescue dog, but was turned down by the club – for various reasons.

OLD BUSINESS:

- Awards banquet to be held May 16th at Marie Calendar's 6:30 pm for meet and greet, then 7:00 pm for dinner.
 - Thank you letters went out to businesses that donated prizes for the raffle or made a monetary donation for trophies. More discussions are needed regarding donation letters.
 - The possibility of having an Animal Specialties ophthalmologist put on a clinic on eyes and invite other clubs as a fund raising opportunity was discussed. Everyone said it was a good idea, but no decisions were made.
 - Next year's specialty will be dedicated to Dolores Hughes, so the club needs to obtain a picture of her to put on the show program/catalog. The club will also work on other things to honor Dolores.
- Show times for the next specialty show were briefly discussed. The club needs to decide what time the spaces will be vacated. At the last show, the next tenant (through the show weekend) for the space arrived mid-day and our club was not done with the space at that time. No discussions were held, but will be at the next meeting.

NEW BUSINESS:

- The club needs to send out notices very soon regarding input for judge selections for the next specialty. We want to try to use judges who come for Silver Bay in order to save money. It would be good to get judges who are local or judges who are already coming for the weekend shows so we can share the costs. We want good judges and should consider using sweepstakes judges from the west coast area.

The morning show judge has already been determined. It will be Kathy Erickson, who will do the show for $1,000 next year.

ADDITIONAL/FORGOTTEN ITEMS:

None.

ADJOURNMENT – Alexis made a motion to adjourn the meeting and Madelon seconded the motion. The meeting was adjourned at 2:30 pm.

BITCHES and BRAGS – Not done this meeting.

SENIOR BOOMERS DEMAND A DOG FRIENDLY AMERICA

For 60 years, the baby-boom generation has been the engine driving the U.S. economy. Advertisers and marketers have targeted this enormous demographic through every phase of life: from infancy to childhood to early adulthood to middle age and now, finally, to senior citizenship.

A fascinating article in today's New York Times, "Pets of the Golden Years," outlines some of the "evolving attitudes and changing family structures that are reshaping the relationship between retirees and their animal companions." It's a safe bet that the multi-billion-dollar pet industry is tracking these cultural changes to better serve the economically powerful senior-boomer age group.

Among the findings reported in J. Peder Zane's story:

- Today's seniors are demanding that senior-living communities be more pet friendly. Zane reports that as recently as 2005, very few such communities accepted pets. It's estimated that 40 percent of them now welcome pets.
- As Americans are having fewer children, their attachment to pets is deepening. A financial planner interviewed for the story says, "I have noticed that the retirement dream for many clients is still drinking a pina colada on the beach, but now they see a Lab next to them." As a result, he now includes pet budget lines in his financial plans for retirees.
- As boomers age, expect small dog breeds to increase in popularity. Zane quotes the American Kennel Club as saying that seniors who live in apartments, or who enjoy traveling, appreciate the compactness and portability of the smaller breeds. Small dogs are also much less likely, the AKC says, to accidentally bowl over or drag down their owners—a serious concern for elderly dog lovers.
- Aging boomers on the go are demanding more dog-friendly RV parks and campgrounds in their travels around the country. Many such facilities are now investing in agility courses, dog parks, and doggy washing stations. "Just having a dog run is no longer enough," one industry source is quoted as saying.

In other words: What boomers want, boomers get. And, increasingly, the Times says, what they want is to enjoy their sunset years to fullest, with a wag-tailed, wet-nosed companion by their side.

ISCSD President and Board members. THANK YOU once again.

That said, do not hesitate to contact a Board member to see where you can help out for any future events and to give us new ideas.

BRAG

"Colby", Ch. Jadestar Seven Card Stud, pictured at the ISCSD Specialty in February, finished his Grand Championship on Sunday at the Long Beach Kennel Club Show under judge, Ms. Pluis Davern.

A big "thank you" to Carri Beaver for piloting Colby to his title. He will now go back to what he does best - swim in his pool!!!
